Term 3
Week 10
25th September 2020

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Carers,

As this is our last newsletter for this term. I thank everyone in our community for their support, patience and understanding as we continued to navigate all the COVID-19 recommendations.

When we return in Term 4, we will review the guidelines set by NSW Health and the Catholic Education Office of Parramatta and look at what events we will be able to hold for our Year 6 graduation and we will inform the community.

Thank you to all the staff at St Francis for their dedication, generosity of spirit, professionalism and their commitment to their vocation during the term.

I wish all our students, staff, parents and carers a very safe and happy holiday break so that everyone returns renewed and refreshed for Term Four which commences for staff and students on Monday 12th October.

It is in partnership we can achieve great things for the children in our care.

Jenny Bellenger

Principal

OCTOBER—THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

October is a month particularly devoted to The Rosary. The Rosary is one of the most cherished prayers of Christian faith and has been prayed for hundreds of years. At its heart is a series of meditations on aspects, or mysteries, of the life of Jesus Christ and Mary his mother. The Joyful Mysteries reflect on the early infancy and childhood of Jesus. The Luminous Mysteries (or Mysteries of Light) follow events of Jesus' Ministry and Teachings. The Sorrowful Mysteries reflect on Jesus' suffering during the Passion. The Glorious Mysteries celebrate the events surrounding and following Christ's triumphant Resurrection.

October presents itself as an opportunity to focus on Mary in any family prayer. You could share the Hail Mary before meals or even a decade of the Rosary once a week. Taking a little prayer time, yourself individually during October could be a wonderful way to embrace the month and seek a little refocusing.

The latest information about the building plans for the new K-6 structure is that the demolition of the old Kindy, Year 1 and Year 2 buildings will happen in the middle of November this Year.

In preparation for this we have been slowly moving Grades into new learning spaces where they will stay for the remainder of the year. We have been very mindful to keep the learning happening which is why this took the whole term.

KEEPING OUR CHILDREN SAFE ONLINE

Recently there was a deeply distressing and harmful video circulating on social media. eSafety made immediate contact about the reports with the major social media companies. eSafety continues to work closely with the companies to prevent further uploads and sharing of harmful videos.

The National Suicide Prevention Adviser to the Prime Minister, Christine Morgan has urged all Australians to avoid viewing or sharing videos of this nature. Christine noted 'content which includes explicit descriptions, images or footage of suicide, especially where methods are shown, have been linked to increases in suicidal thoughts, suicide attempts and suicide deaths.'

While we understand that children can be enterprising and that word of the video may have gone viral in some classrooms and playgrounds, we also need to balance this phenomena with concerns around arousing curiosity to students who may not be aware of such a distressing online incident. This is particularly important with content that relates to suicide and self-harm."

If parents or carers encounter harmful and disturbing content online, report it immediately to the social media platform they've seen it on first, and then to eSafety at www.esafety.gov.au/report/illegal-harmful-content.

Children may feel scared, embarrassed, or confused about having seen inappropriate content, so it is important to communicate in an open and supportive manner that they need to inform their parents or teachers. Sometimes children fear that adults may not be able to help them or fear reprisals like 'device denial' if they do share harmful content they have been exposed to online, so it is important for them to know how responsible they are in reporting the content.

Parents are urged to do the following:

Engage in your child's online activities – ask what apps, sites and games they're using and make sure they're age appropriate.

Ensure that technology is charged in a family area at night. You can also try to make an agreement that there are no tablets, laptops or gaming in bedrooms.

Use parental controls on devices to help limit what your child is exposed to.

Help your child/children to report and block upsetting content they see on social media sites or apps.

Let your child/children know they can come to you about anything upsetting they see online.

If your child is a regular user of social networks, they must be aware of the risk of personal information or images being made public once they post it. While they won't fully understand the consequences of revealing personal information online, they need to be cautious and thoughtful about what they post and share. Encourage your children to ask themselves before posting anything if the information (i.e. name, phone number, home address, email, name of school) or photo is something they would give a stranger. If the answer is no, don't post it.

Every picture and personal detail that is posted and shared on social media and the internet contributes to someone's digital footprint. The big risk with this is that once information is shared publicly, it can be used in ways you may not expect and cannot control. You should also assume that anything that is put online is permanent (it can sometimes be deleted but not always before others have seen it and saved it).

Most apps, networks and devices have geo-tagging features which make your whereabouts public and can lead someone directly to you. These features should be turned off for obvious privacy and safety reasons. Digital photos also contain metadata (information about the time, date and GPS coordinates) which may reveal more than you want to. Some social media platforms automatically hide or remove this data, but not all, so do your homework and know how much information you're sharing.

Lead by example and always model the kind of positive online behaviour you would like your children to use. If they see you being cautious and respectable when you are online, they are more likely to follow in your footsteps. Ultimately, you don't want to instil fear in your child or prevent them from experiencing the many educational, entertainment, social and other benefits of the internet, but rather give them the skills and knowledge they need to know how to make the most of it and avoid the dangers.

The St Francis staff will continue to provide safety education to ensure that our students are safe online, and we will support our students to follow our school agreements in being safe and responsible using technology.

YEARS 3 TO 6 JAPANESE DAY

Japanese Incursion Days

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday this week, Years 3 - 6 participated in a Japanese Day Incursion. The students were involved in several activities;

- Sumie (calligraphy) art with a Japanese fude (brush) to paint a nezumi (mouse) and usagi (rabbit) with black ink.
- Shibori, which is folding paper in different ways and dyeing it with a variety of colours to make patterns.
- Hachimaki headband with a message in hiragana and kanji.
- Decorating hashi (chopsticks) with origami paper.
- For lunch students ate gohan (rice) and Japanese curry in an obentou box with miso soup, poki sticks, mochi, nori and some fresh fruit. Students ate their lunch using a pair of hashi.

Parents and carers, you should be immensely proud of your children for their use of manners on the day. Also, of their own volition, many students have approached myself and their teachers to express their gratitude for planning and running this day for them. Your children/s involvement and sincere appreciation made the days even more enjoyable.

Cox Sensei.
